

Beddgelert

Ethical, informed citizens

- are knowledgeable about their culture, community, society and the world, now and in the past
- respect the needs and rights of others, as a member of a diverse society

Enterprising, creative contributors

- express ideas and emotions through different media

Ambitious, capable learners

- set themselves high standards and seek and enjoy challenge
- can communicate effectively in different forms and settings, using both Welsh and English

Healthy, confident individuals

- have secure values and are establishing their beliefs
- are building their mental and emotional well-being by developing confidence, resilience and empathy

Key learning

Human Civilization – World War 2 Empathy

What will we learn?

- understand that the past can be divided into periods of time and that these periods are different from one another and from the present
- understand and have awareness of the communities in which they live, Wales and the wider world, and have an understanding of how past and present shaped them
- describe and explain similarities and differences between people's lives, communities, and societies in the past and present, including how they have been governed, plus understand that not everyone shares the same beliefs, experiences or viewpoints
- respond and reflect on literature, art and music influenced by the war, focusing on characters and emotions

Cross-curricular skills

- Literacy
 - write a comprehensive account of a topic, theme or viewpoint, making appropriate choices about vocabulary and other language, showing empathy for those involved
 - use paragraphs, including writing an introduction to establish context and purpose
- Numeracy
 - work with fractions, decimals and percentages
 - represent a concept or problem in different ways
- Digital
 - demonstrate appropriate online behaviour
 - create and refine algorithms and to solve problems

Text Drivers

The Valley of Lost Secrets
by Lesley Parr
Information books about
World War 2

Our experiences...

Recounting events from World War 2
Making a high-quality, creative scrapbook, containing all our work about World War 2
Exploring forces
Trip to St Fagans to see 1940s post office